FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPLETON INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT EXPECTS LARGE
CROWDS THROUGH THANKSGIVING

GREENVILLE, Wis., Nov. 22, 2016 - Appleton International Airport is preparing for large crowds of Thanksgiving travelers. An estimated 1,500 passengers will depart from Appleton International Airport Wednesday, Nov. 23. This is nearly double the average of traffic traveling from the airport during non-holiday periods.

For the first time, all four Allegiant routes will depart from Appleton on the same day, the day before Thanksgiving, Nov. 23. Allegiant flies direct to Orlando/Sanford, Las Vegas, Phoenix/Mesa and Tampa/St. Pete from Appleton International Airport.

Along with the Allegiant flights, there will be flights on Delta and United Nov. 23 contributing to the heavy traffic.

Travelers departing from Appleton International Airport during the holidays should follow these tips to make their trips go smoothly:

- Arrive at the airport 90 minutes before departure.
- Pack all gels and liquids in carry-on bags according to TSA's 3-1-1 rules.
- Print boarding pass out ahead of time or have available on phone.
- Be prepared to wait. Bring a snack and something to do.
