FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPLETON INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT TO OFFER CAMPING
DURING EAA AIRVENTURE

GREENVILLE, Wis., Feb. 8, 2017 - Appleton International Airport will offer camping at its new campground, Camp Flying Fox, during EAA AirVenture starting in 2017.

"We are thrilled to offer camping this summer during EAA AirVenture," said Abe Weber, airport director. "Pilots have been asking for on-site camping for years."

An hourly shuttle will also be available to and from EAA AirVenture in Oshkosh from 7 a.m.-8 p.m. daily during the event July 24-30.

Appleton International Airport's camp is located next to Platinum Flight Center. There are 30 camping spaces available.

Guests can camp at Appleton International Airport from July 22 to July 30. Camping costs $20 per night and includes shower facilities, charging stations, barbecue grills and charcoal. On-site rental cars will be available with many shopping and evening entertainment options nearby. Guests can make reservations by visiting PlatinumFlightCenter.com/Camping-At-ATW.

"We believe pilots come to Appleton during EAA because of our exceptional service," said Weber. "Our guests will experience the same great service at Camp Flying Fox."

Camping at Appleton International Airport will be especially convenient for international guests. International visitors can fly directly to Appleton and use the on-site U.S. Customs and Border Protection facility.

In past years Appleton International Airport has offered aircraft parking for those visiting EAA AirVenture. In 2016, Appleton International Airport hosted 585 aircraft. Over the past three years, aircraft landing at Appleton International Airport for EAA AirVenture has grown more than 12 percent. This is the first year it will offer camping accommodations.
