FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPLETON INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT PRESENTS $75,000 CHECK TO OLD GLORY HONOR FLIGHT

GREENVILLE, Wis., Nov. 10, 2017 - Appleton International Airport presented a $75,000 check to Old Glory Honor Flight Friday, Nov. 10 in the airport lobby.

The money was raised at Appleton International Airport's Pulling For Honor event held in September 2017. More than 400 participants competed in the plane pull and raised money for Old Glory Honor Flight.

"We at Old Glory Honor Flight are humbled by our longstanding partnership with Appleton International Airport and this incredibly successful event exemplifies the passion that our combined teams have for veteran and military causes," said Diane MacDonald, Old Glory Honor Flight treasurer.

"We thank the Fox Cities community for the tremendous support we received at this event," said Abe Weber, airport director. "So many people made this event special: the volunteers, area veteran's groups, families and friends who cheered on the teams, our sponsors and especially the teams who helped us achieve our $75,000 goal."

Appleton International Airport has helped Old Glory Honor Flight send more than 3,900 veterans to Washington, D.C. to visit war memorials over the past eight years. The $75,000 will be enough to fund one honor flight for 90 veterans and their guardians.

Appleton International Airport plans to host another Pulling for Honor event benefiting Old Glory Honor Flight in 2018.
