APPLETON INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT ANNOUNCES ATLANTA DIRECT FLIGHT SCHEDULE

APPLETON, Wis. – Appleton International Airport resumes direct Delta Air Lines flights to Atlanta beginning August 3 and announces the upcoming flight schedule.

“Customers love the convenience of our nonstop Atlanta flight,” said Appleton Airport Director Abe Weber. ‘Atlanta is one of our top business destinations and also offers easy connections to the entire Southeast. Travelers can be at their final destination just after lunch.’”

Flight times to and from Atlanta are as follows:

From August 3 to September 7

- Flight leaves ATW at 7:25 a.m. and arrives in ATL at 10:34 a.m.
- Flight departs ATL at 6:04 p.m. and arrives in ATW at 7:10 p.m.

Following September 7

- Flight departs ATW at 6:45 a.m. and arrives in ATL at 9:53 a.m.
- Flight departs ATL at 6:06 p.m. and arrives in ATW at 7:15 p.m.

Delta leads the industry with its promise to provide more space for safer travel by blocking middle seats and capping seating in the Main Cabin at 60% through Sept. 30. Travelers are also provided greater flexibility if their plans change, as Delta has waived change fees for new tickets booked through August 31. Travelers may visit delta.com for bookings and more information on the airline’s extensive measures for cleanliness and safer service.

“We’re focused on providing peace of mind in a clean, safer travel experience from check in to baggage claim, so when customers are ready to fly, we’re ready for them,” said Susan Franson, Delta director of global sales.

As travelers return to the Appleton Airport, they can count on extensive disinfecting protocols, more self-sanitizing resources, touchless interactions at key points, and the addition of a second private mother’s room in the concourse. They will also experience a fresh new look due to the ATW Clean initiative. This program includes enhanced cleanliness and physical airport improvements, as well as efficiency and environmental upgrades.
