

BREAKING NEWS: ALLEGANT ANNOUNCES A SPECIAL FLIGHT FOR PACKERS FOOTBALL FAN TRAVEL TO NEW ORLEANS

The Green Bay Packers take on the New Orleans Saints Sept. 12 in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome

APPLETON, Wis. May 14, 2021 — Allegiant (NASDAQ: ALGT) is helping Green Bay Packers fans get to New Orleans to see their team take on the New Orleans Saints in September.

The airline is adding a special one-time only scheduled flight from Appleton to New Orleans, providing NFL fans with a nonstop, hassle-free way to get to the game, where they can don their cheeseheads and cheer on the green and yellow as they begin their journey to the playoffs this season. The last meeting between the Packers and Saints took place Sept. 27, 2020 when the Packers won 37-30 in a week 3 battle.

“Green Bay Packers fans are among the most devoted in the world and we know they are excited to get back into stands to cheer on their favorite athletes in person,” said Drew Wells, Allegiant senior vice president of revenue. “Allegiant’s brand of nonstop, affordable flights provide the perfect opportunity for Packers’ fans to travel New Orleans. All of our flights take fans directly to their destinations without the hassle of layovers or connections.”

The special flight between Appleton International Airport (ATW) and Louis Armstrong New Orleans International Airport (MSY) is scheduled to depart on Sept. 10, 2021 and return on Sept. 13, 2021 providing a perfectly timed option for fan travel. Flight times and the lowest fares can be found only at Allegiant.com.

Don’t hesitate to grab your friends, family and game day gear and pack your bags to enjoy fan experiences presented by the NFL and Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Allegiant offers a unique option to Green Bay-area travelers with low base airfare and savings on rental cars and hotels. Travelers can book their entire vacation with Allegiant for less.
